

OBM Alternative Prayer at Day's Ending

Becoming present to God

Loving God,
From the moment of waking,
through the varied contours of this day,
you have been a constant presence.
Now, as the day draws to its close,
and evening/night settles,
we quieten our minds and still our hearts.
You are with us here
and now
and in your presence we rest.

Pause

Under your loving gaze, O Christ,
we reflect on the day that is past,
and pray for the light and guidance of your Spirit.

Examen – Acknowledging our Humanity

We look back over the last twenty-four hours and reflect on events, encounters, experiences, the feelings these evoked in us and the attitudes that underlie them.

- What am I most grateful for?
- What warmed my heart?
- What made me more open to others, and to God?
- I savour the memory.

Prayers of praise may be offered

- What am I least grateful for?
- What closed me up to others, and to God?
- What do I regret?
- I express my feelings to God.

Prayer for forgiveness

Merciful Lord,

Where we have denied you entry to our lives
and lived this day for ourselves
we are sorry and ask for your forgiveness.

Grant to us your pardon and peace.

And in the day to come

help us by your Spirit

to be attentive to the rhythms of grace

that we might attune our lives

to your praise and service.

Prayer

We bring to God the concerns of the day and entrust them to his safe-keeping.

We pray for an awareness of the grace we need for the coming day.

Nunc Dimittis

Now, Lord, you let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.

My own eyes have seen the salvation
which you have prepared in the sight of every people;
a light to reveal you to the nations
and the glory of your people Israel.

Luke 2:29-32

Collect

Lighten our darkness, Lord, we pray,
and in your great mercy
defend us from all perils and dangers of this night
for the love of your only Son,
our Saviour, Jesus Christ.
Amen.

or

Stay with us, Lord,

*and watch over us
through the hours of this night.
When morning comes,
may we wake, rested and restored,
ready to embrace the promise of a new day.*

Blessing

*The Lord bless us and keep us;
the Lord make his face to shine upon us and be gracious to us;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon us and give us peace.*

Amen.
