

OBM Daily Office for Sunday Morning & Easter - Risen Lord

Becoming present to God

Through a sign of attentiveness like lighting a candle or

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit or

The Lord is risen!

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Risen Lord,

In this place and at this time, come and stand among us.

'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.' Luke 24:5

Celebrating the presence of God

Lord Jesus Christ,

we greet you

risen from the grave and alive in our world.

We give you praise that through your self-giving love evil has been conquered and death defeated.

We give you thanks that by your Spirit you have given us new life and set your hope in our hearts.

Radiant Lord,

fill us with that same love, and grant us grace to live the life of new creation as we seek to worship you, our Lord and our God.

A pause to name any specific thanks or praise

Acknowledging our humanity

Life-giving God, with gladness we acknowledge that in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ you have interrupted our lives with your grace:
a new beginning has been announced and the world will never be the same.

Forgive us when we continue to live in the old ways, paralyzed with fear, not daring to believe our eyes, denying life.

Living Lord,
come to us,
as you came to your first disciples: surprise us with your peace and forgiveness and continue in us your work of transformation.

Lord have mercy
Christ have mercy

Listening for the Word of God -
From The Common Lectionary

Canticle – Optional
Resurrection Song

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!

By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading,

kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish.

Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.
1 Peter 1:3-5, 18, 19, 21 (NRSV)

Or a choice of Easter Anthems Christ our passover has been sacrificed for us: so let us celebrate the feast, not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
1 Corinthians 5:7b, 8 (NRSV)

Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all: in living he lives to God.

See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:

and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Romans 6:9-11 (NRSV)

Christ has been raised from the dead:

the first fruits of those who sleep.

For as by man came death:

by man has come also the resurrection of the dead;

for as in Adam all die:

even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15:20-22 (NRSV)

Reflecting on our roots

Living God, enable us this day to be pilgrims and companions: committed to the way of Christ, faithful to the call of Christ, discerning the mind of Christ, offering the welcome of Christ, growing in the likeness of Christ, engaging in the mission of Christ, in the world that belongs to Christ.

Bringing our concerns

Living Lord,

you came to one who was overwhelmed by grief, and said, 'Why are you weeping?'

We pray for all who are sorrowful and experiencing the pain of loss ...

Living Lord,

you came to those who were fearful and without hope and said, 'Peace be with you'.

We pray for all who face anxiety and dejection ...

Living Lord,

you came to one who had denied you and said, 'Feed my sheep'.

We pray for all who have little confidence in their own ability to serve you faithfully ...

We pray for:

- World
- Church
- People

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Going to love and serve Lord of Life,
through the resurrection
of Jesus Christ from the dead a door has cracked open and your new creation has been set loose in our world.

By your Spirit, enable us this day to participate in his dying and rising and so share the life of Christ with all whom we meet. Amen.
