

ORDER for BAPTIST MINISTRY

Midday Prayers for Tuesday and Advent

Celebrating the presence of God

Optional:

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

In the midst of the day, we pause to reflect upon God's goodness and mercy, and to commit the day afresh to his guidance and upholding.

In the busy rush of this day we pause and wait,
thankful for your coming ever anew by your Spirit.
Be born afresh in our lives with the promise
that you will never leave until we see you face to face and promise is embraced by the perfection of your Kingdom.

A pause to acknowledge any specific thanks and praise

Acknowledging our humanity

Our minds become filled with the thoughts and actions of our morning's work and our hearts clouded by the fears and hopes of those we carry on our hearts.

So, we forget to pray, become imprisoned by
the present,
and begin to lose our way.

Forgive us, Lord and set our feet once more in the path of prayer
with our hearts
set on pilgrimage.

we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen

Listening for the Word

A freely chosen reading, the Gospel from the Communion readings from the Common Lectionary, or

Owe no one anything, except to love one another;
for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law....

Love does no wrong to a neighbour;
therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this,
you know what time it is,
how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep.

For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers;
the night is far gone
the day is near.

Let us then lay aside
the works of darkness and put on the armour of light;
let us live honourably as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness,
not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy.

Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.
Romans 13:8, 10–14. NRSV

Bringing our concerns

We pray for those we have encountered, or whose circumstances have captured our hearts and prayers ...

We pray for all that the remainder of this day promises ...

We pray for our world,
church,
members of this Order and circle of friends and family ...

We pray for the light to shine in the darkest places of our world, bringing the hope of the Kingdom of Christ where fear reigns and lives most broken.

Silent prayer

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer. Amen.

Continuing to love and serve

May we be ready for your coming, with lamps lit
ears ready to hear your call and our hearts aflame with love for you. Amen.
